SAW THE PRESIDENT

The Presbyterian General Assembly at Washington.

RECEPTION IN THE EAST ROOM.

Dr. Craig's Address and the President's Reply. The Need of Morality and Religion in Society.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—After listening to the reports of numerous committees the general assembly of the Presbyterian church now in session here, adjourned yesterday afternoon and proceeded in a body to the White house to call upon the president. President and Mrs. Cleveland received the visitors in the East room. Mrs. Cleveland wore a gray gown of soft, clinging material trimmed with black velvet, and looked the embodiment of good health.

Dr. Craig, the moderator, was presented to the president by Dr. Bartlett, chairman of the committee of arrangements, and made a brief, felicitous address, in the course of which he said:

"You know somewhat of the Presbyterian church. Many of these gentlemen who are here have precisely the same general experience that you had, and have been reared amidst the plain life and the high thinking of that orderful nursery of men. We have common experiences which make us, though we may never have come together before, to be as it were, friends, because we know the things which have perchance made us to be worthy of the esteem of our fellow men, and made you, sir, worthy to rule, in the confidence of your fellow citizens, gathered close around about you, the highest nation of the whole world. Sir, let me congratulate you upon the fact that sturdy Presbyterians hedge you round about and that the sturdiest Presbyterian of us all is at your side, a holy benediction to keep you straight to the faith of your ancestors, which is not only the great assurance of success, but is the highway to the immediate presence of the living God."

In conclusion Dr. Craig delivered the assembly's invitation to the president to visit the assembly. President Cleveland said in response:

"Mr. Moderator and gentlemen and ladies: I assure you it affords me much personal gratification to meet on this occasion the representatives of that great religious denomination which has done so much to make our people better and happier and which is associated with so many noble and noble incidents of our individual experience. The thought is also in my mind that, in the light of my public duties and responsibilities, there is a propriety in extending to you a welcome to this home of the nation's chief executive."

"We will profess to be a Christian people. This means that no public officer of high or low degree should be unmindful of the restraint of religious sentiment. It means that the religious teaching of our people should lead them to exact from those who make and execute their laws a recognition of these restraints. It means that rules which a popular religious sense approves should underlie the performance of every public duty, and it means that those who assume to be religious teachers in this land, where the people are related in responsibility to those in public station, must be true to those teachings."

"You, therefore, will, I hope, permit me to say that though you do well to insist upon the conscientious discharge of official obligations, and though you ought never to shrink from the exposure of official shortcomings, the contribution you owe toward accomplishing good government will not be fully made unless you teach the people by precept and example that they will find their safety and welfare in enforcing upon their public servants the observance of the mandates of Christianity and morality."

"There ought to be inspiration in the thought that our country's destiny is in our own hands, and it ought to dignify our Americanism to feel and to know those who teach and those who govern, and those in every walk of citizenship, have a share in our preservation as a Christian people, and in the guarantee this affords of grand national achievement."

The visitors were then presented by name to the president by Dr. Bartlett and to Mrs. Cleveland by Col. J. M. Wilson, superintendent of buildings and grounds, who was in full dress uniform. They then strolled through the parlors and conservatory and afterward took their departure.

United Brethren Conference.
DAYTON, O., May 20.—The United Brethren conference re-elected Brother Jonathan Weaver, D. D., of Dayton, bishop emeritus. Rev. Nicholas Castle, D. D., of Elkhart, Ind.; Rev. E. B. Kephart, D. D., of Johnston, Pa.; and Rev. J. W. Holt, D. D., of Woodbridge, Cal., were re-elected bishops. Rev. George A. Funkhouser, D. D., president of Union Biblical seminary, of this city, was re-elected bishop, but declined.

A Drunken Quarrel.
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 20.—John Humphrey, a laborer, was shot and mortally wounded at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Louis McArthur in a back room at 1309 south Eighth street. The shooting followed a drunken quarrel.

No Strip Opening for Months.
WASHINGTON, May 20.—Secretary Smith said today that he would do his utmost to expedite all arrangements for the opening of the Cherokee strip, but he fears that the work will require months.

An Actor and a Patriot.
CINCINNATI, May 20.—Mr. James E. Murdoch, the well known tragedian and teacher of elocution, died today at the home of his daughters in this city. He was 85 years of age.

A cabinet council at Vienna decided upon suppressing the anti-Semitic and Czech expositions.

SURPRISED THE LADIES.

Helena Gossman's Paper on the Holiness of Motherhood and Home.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—Mrs. Helena Gossman, of Massachusetts, was on the program to read a paper at the woman's congress. She was not present, however, and Mrs. Davis was called upon to read it for her. If Mrs. Davis had glanced over the paper in her hands she probably would not have blessed her fortune for bringing about this special duty. Mrs. Gossman's paper was a surprise to the reader and to the audience. Instead of extolling woman's qualifications for all the arts, sciences and professions, instead of demanding rights and privileges, and referring to her sex as enslaved and down-trodden, it took a turn different from any yet taken in the congress and exalted woman's position in the home, presiding with gentle grace over the family altar and carefully rearing her children to do their duty in life as the one particular sphere for which her Creator designed her. The paper quoted several famous authors to show that woman's true mission is to create a home and that her greatest gift was maternity and her truest profession that of preceptress in the great school-room of motherhood.

"The canon and on marble," said the author, "man has painted and chiseled the highest conceptions of human art. Woman's divine art lies deeper than the insensate similitude. The new generations which God is perpetually sending into the world are quarries, each individual of whom is more precious than all the marbles and paintings. Her study is the school room, the lecture room and wherever she can find an instant hour to shape human souls into the likeness of God. She who refuses this dignity is just so much less the woman the more she struggles against so holy a destiny." The writer thought the multitudinous burdens which modern agitators seek to impose upon women are a heavy burden to carry in connection with her wifehood and motherhood, and she urged upon the listeners that a well-ordered home dignifies and ennobles the state.

As Mrs. Davis read these heresies her eyes snapped and her voice assumed a defiant ring. When she finished the paper she said: "I wish the author had been here to read it herself and that the powers that be had granted Mrs. Davis the power to discuss it."

THE LATEST FROM NICARAGUA.

Government and the Revolutionists Said to Have Agreed Upon an Armistice.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—According to information here the Nicaragua revolution has taken an unexpected turn. Unofficial advice has been received at the state department that an agreement for an armistice has been reached by the government and the revolutionists in Nicaragua. No further information than this is obtainable at the department.

The source of the news is concealed beyond the fact that it did not come direct to Secretary Gresham from Nicaragua. Evidently, however, the source is one entitled to credit, as the news is accepted as authentic at the department. The absence of direct advice from Nicaragua is regarded as inexplicable. It is expected that the cruiser Atlanta will reach Greytown in a day or two and the Alliance will probably be a few days later in reaching the west coast of Nicaragua, where most of the fighting has taken place.

KANSAS CORPORATION LAW.

Kansas Corporations in Future Must File a Schedule of Their Assets and Liabilities.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 20.—The law requiring that all corporations file annually with the secretary of state a report of their assets and liabilities, and other information concerning the condition of their business, has never been complied with except by the railroads. The law department has decided to send notice upon corporations associations that it is expected that the cruiser Atlanta will reach Greytown in a day or two and the Alliance will probably be a few days later in reaching the west coast of Nicaragua, where most of the fighting has taken place.

OPPOSED BY METHODISTS.

The Denunciation Leads in Antagonizing the Geary Law.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The Methodists, who have the largest number of missionaries in China, have taken official action in the matter of having the Geary act repealed or modified, and have decided to invite the co-operation of all other Protestant denominations. The first active step was taken yesterday, when copies of a resolution passed at the last meeting of the board of foreign missions were mailed to the various publications all over the country. The resolution lamented the existence of the Geary act, and named Sunday, May 25, to be observed by a special prayer throughout the country for securing just treatment to the Chinese in this country.
